

Studio Lesson Policy and Contract

Thank you for choosing to nurture your or your child's love for music. I am so excited to be a part of your musical journey! Please reach out if you have any questions.

Contact

Please feel free to reach out to me at any point if you or your child have any questions. I will respond within 24 hours unless I am unable to access the internet. I will let you know if that is ever the case.

Phone: (720)-600-7222

Email: colette.burch6216@gmail.com

Location

I currently travel to students' homes. Parents must be in the home during the lesson. Please provide a music stand. I have zero tolerance for harassment, and reserve the right to terminate a lesson if needed.

Payment policy

Trial lesson: Free

30-minute lesson: $30-$40

60-minute lesson: $40-$60

I accept check, cash, and Venmo payments. If there is another payment app you use, I would be willing to work with that as well. I will set up a payment plan per lesson, weekly, or monthly depending on what is easiest for you.

Students are expected to provide their own instruments and materials. I will provide scans of music whenever possible.

Cancellation policy

As I prepare material for each lesson, please cancel at least 24 hours before the lesson or you will still be charged. I understand that things come up unexpectedly, so I am willing to reschedule.

If I am late, I will stay late or add time to another lesson. If I cancel, you will be refunded.

Thank you for reading through this lesson policy. Again, please always feel free to reach out if you have any questions, concerns, or requests!
