Violinist, Private Instructor

COLETTE BURCH

Colette Burch is currently studying Violin Performance at the University of Northern Colorado. Her professional experience includes performing as a soloist for a dance, design, and music collaboration concert, chamber works, private events, and performing with the Greeley Philharmonic Orchestra. She enjoys teaching both her private studio and the students at Salida Del Sol Academy, collaborating with colleagues for events, and watching chamber music performances.

She strives to share her humanity with her music, and works to give students their own experience of emotional expression through their musical journey.
